THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There.

The Goss Military Institute base ball team and the University club are playing a matched game of base ball at the fair grounds this afternoon.

Strangers in the city, as well as old patrons, are cordially invited to visit the Ziegler Cafe this evening, as the proprietors have made elaborate preparations to entertain.

Some one stole a beautiful lap robe from Max Becker's carriage last night, while it was standing in front of his office. This is the second lap robe he has lost within two weeks.

The machinery hauled out to Hell canyon for the Alton Mining and milling company by W. L. Trimble & Co. is rapidly being put in place, and it is expected that the new mill will be in operation within ten days.

The guards turned out in large numbers to the drill last night. The possibility of a war gives new impulse to the boys, and they are showing great eagerness to learn the new tactics, in which they are making good progress.

Judge Emery, the veteran irrigation agitator, of Lawrence, Kan., who is well known in this city, is on his way home from a trip through California and Mexico in the interest of international irrigation. He will probably stop off in this city for a few days before proceeding to his Kansas home.

The Idlewild, on the corner of Fourth street and Silver avenue, belonging to Mrs. Scott, was sold yesterday to Mrs. K. M. Garden, the transfer being made by Otto Dieckman. Mrs. Garden intends to repair the building and put it in first class shape. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Williams, who have had charge of the Idlewild for some time past, expect to go to California.

The owners of Albuquerque acquiesce in the fact that the city is a water city, and that they must call on the mavrodemos and pay for water in advance. VIVIAN CARABALLO.

The Indians were to have shown cause today why the temporary injunction restraining them from interfering with the agents of the Albuquerque Land and Irrigation company should not be made permanent. The matter was adjourned until Monday. Neill B. Field appears for the Indians and Judge Collier and E. W. Dobson for the canal company.

If you are down town this evening, you will do well to bear in mind that a magnificent free lunch is being served at the Ziegler Cafe in connection with the choice supply of liquors always to be found there.

Notes.

We have the goods, not the samples. You may try on before garments are finished. I live here and employ home labor. If goods are not satisfactory some one in the east is not to blame, nor have we left town. No. 112 South Second st.
